Name: _____ Date: _____

Identifying Theme

Ikram is a figure in many cultures stories and legends. Ikram is known as a character "Today Ikram and his friends are going to help us learn about Identifying theme."

Theme Book

Just like a book can't give a few lines of your neighbors. Just as a book can't "[illegible]" [illegible] of your [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] your [illegible]

Directions: Read each of the four passages below. Use each one to find a theme. Then be sure to back that theme up with passages. Make sure at least one of the passages is a text that helps you find the theme. The theme will not be [illegible]

Ikram stepped in the room, looking around. He had invited his friends in a very odd way. "So sorry everyone," said Ikram. "I can't keep it a secret anymore. Welcome to the Great Game." Ikram continued on and on about his speech. He had not told their everyone had left. Ikram was shocked – where had everyone gone? He went to knock the house and ordered his servant. The same happened at Ikram's den and Ikram's dam. Ikram went home. Who were all of his friends leaving him?

Theme Shown:

Ikram ran around his house, throwing things everywhere. Today Ikram and his friends were going to play war. Everyone had brought their own bow and bow their own arrows. Now Ikram could not find his. He was looking everywhere. Where had he put it? At last, Ikram gave up. Maybe he would find it on his way. Ikram met his friends by the river. Everyone had their bow and plenty of arrows. Poor Ikram had to watch his friends play without him.

Theme Shown:

Ikram laughed and shouted. His friends gathered around his cold, wet body. "Friends!" they said. Ikram had been out of sight for a few days. His friends had gone looking. They had had Ikram's stepmother and get cotton, but he insisted on going. Now a doctor, he was in bed, unable to move. "We've been going in vain," suggested Ikram. His friends, however, did not want to upset Ikram's sickness. They would have to play some

Theme Shown:

Ikram was walking along the path when he saw something shining in the distance. He went to investigate. Ikram couldn't believe his eyes. Underneath a shining crystal to could with. Ikram proceed from it and reached it. It had six things for a minute. Ikram found a note at the door. It was his friend Cocotte. "Someone stole my crystal, Ikram. I was going to make you a crystal ball, but I cannot anymore," read Cocotte. Ikram faded in the trunk. Cocotte quietly got up and left without a word.

Theme Shown:

© [illegible] Learning Resources