

The background of the entire image is a dark, atmospheric scene from the game Bloodborne. It shows a character from behind, standing in a narrow, cobblestone street of a gothic city. The character is wearing a dark, heavy coat and a hood with pointed ears. They are holding a large, ornate weapon in their right hand and a smaller, blood-stained weapon in their left. The street is dimly lit, with light coming from a distance, creating a misty and eerie atmosphere. The buildings on either side are dark and detailed with gothic architecture.
