

Community Development Programme

Mr Sundar Barman
Dept. of Extension Education
AAU, Jorhat

CD is a process of change from the traditional way of living of rural communities to progressive ways of living.

A method by which people can be assisted to develop themselves on their own capacity and resources.

A programme for accomplishing certain activities in fields concerning the welfare of the rural people.

A movement for progress with a certain ideological contents.