

• Extension is an educational arm of Government.

• Emphasizes an organization that either carries out educational services directly or transmits knowledge from other resources to people.

• Control by Educational Group

• a direct Government approach.

• Emphasizes the coordination of services by a working team made up of representatives of different services.

• Control by government agency