

A blue spiral-bound notebook is the central focus, featuring a black metal spiral binding at the top. The notebook's cover is a solid blue color with the words "Little Lucky" printed in a white, serif font. Below this, the year "2025" is printed in a large, white, sans-serif font. To the left of the notebook, the pages of an open book are visible, showing a cream-colored paper with some text. The entire scene is set against a plain white background.
