

December

Come on all you children sing loud so I can hear about the jolly old man with the long white beard.

He wears a velvet hat on his fuzzy old head.
Do you know what the color is? (Red) The color it is red.

Now this jolly old man has a dozen little friends
and they all look like very tiny little men
They make toys and put them on the shelves.
Do you know what they're called?
(Elves) Yes, they're called elves.

Isn't it fun to sing a song, around the Christmas tree
about a man who's nice and jolly as he can be?
Won't you sing a song, around the Christmas tree,
about a man who's nice and jolly as he can be?

Now this jolly old man with his long white beard
Drives a team of tiny reindeer.
He calls to Rudolph, now won't you lead the way.
Do you know what he rides in? (A sleigh) Yes, it's a sleigh.

Now this jolly old man with his long white beard,
watches all you children all year.
and if he finds that you've been good girls and boys.
Do you know what he brings you? (Toys) Yes there called toys.
