Although we will not be living together, in general the best arrangement for our child/ren is to have frequent and continuing contact with both parents. The well-being and needs of our child/ren are a major concern. When the child/ren is/are in either parent's physical custody, each parent will provide the child/ren with (1) regular and nutritious food, (2) clean and appropriate clothing, and (3) appropriate medical examinations and treatment. Decision making is an important part of parenting and the parent who has the child/ren in their care shall make decisions about the child/ren's day-to-day care and control. As our child/ren grow/s and change/s and our life situations change, we shall be flexible and cooperative and communicate so we can continue to meet the needs of our child/ren.

In addition, when caring for the child/ren, each parent shall:

- Require the child/ren to obey and respect the child/ren's teachers and the law.
- Require the child/ren to attend all regular sessions of school until graduation, unless excused by medical reasons, the school, the court or both parents.
- _____

EXCEPT FOR THE HOLIDAYS SELECTED BELOW, OUR PARENTING SCHEDULE WILL BE:

(list days, evenings, overnights, times of day)

Our child/ren will be with Mother: _____
