

	Recommended Materials
<input type="radio"/>	3-subject notebook
	Folder
	Writing Utensil
	Composition Notebook
	(kept in class)
<input type="radio"/>	Colored Pencils
	Highlighter
	Scissors
	Glue Stick
	Dry Erase Marker
<input type="radio"/>	Index Cards
	Jump Drive

"A reader lives a thousand lives before he dies. A man who never reads lives only one."

George R. R. Martin

Homework Policy

- Homework assignments will be posted in Mrs. Nesselrodt's room.
- Due dates are taken very seriously.
- If an assignment is not submitted on time, students will have a grace period of three days to submit the assignment.
- A 10% grade reduction will be given for each of the three days it is late.
- If an assignment isn't submitted after the grace period, students will receive a grade of 0%, no exceptions.
  - ✓ Students may still be required to complete and submit the assignment although no grade will be given.

In addition to the novels shown above, we will occasionally be using a textbook in class, but textbooks will not be checked out to students to take home. Also, throughout the year we will read a variety of books, magazines, newspapers, online material, poetry, drama, and more.

GRADING POLICY

Grades will be determined by the percentage of points accumulated throughout each grading period. Because each class consists of two courses, you will receive two identical grades on your report card for ELA7.

I use  remind, a service which allows teachers to safely text message students and stay in touch with parents. Teachers never see students' phone numbers and students never see theirs. Students and parents can sign up to receive messages from my class by texting the following code according to their group to (304) 691-0972.
7A: text @mrsnesselr to the number above.
7B: text @PCMSELA7B to the number above.
7C: text @PCMSELA7C to the number above.

Or, sign up online!