

Community Development Project Outcomes

- Provides face to face services and casework follow-up to individuals and families requesting generalist services.
- Provides information and assistance to families presenting with financial stress.
- Undertakes community development work to ensure services develop in response to changing client group needs.