Now that you look back, 1965 was a pretty good year, wasn't it? Whether in school or on vacation, there was plenty of fun to be had . . . there were lots of new things to learn about . . . and always you were in the midst of exciting activity. Now, you can start all over with 1966!

How about some resolutions for the new year? Here's a starter list: Read a book a week . . . think of ways to help around the house . . . make things . . . find a new friend . . . change the looks of your room . . . invent some recipes . . . have a little fun every day . . . make 1966 the best of years!
