

Call Before Driving Far

While every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the listings, Louisville Music News is not responsible for the correctness of any listing. Telephone calls to the venue should be made to confirm the event before traveling any distance.

Send Us Your Dates Early

Submissions for the Louisville Music News calendar must be received in writing by the 20th of the month for the following month's calendar. Performers may submit their gigs or venues may submit their schedules. There is no charge for this service.

UPCOMING, continued from page 19

My Own Victim has done very well in Europe and Flaw has been getting consistently good reviews for their live shows.

Tix and info: 456-1137

• Aerosmith will finally make their delayed concert at Freedom Hall on December 9. The band had to cancel several earlier dates due to Steve Tyler's injury to his knee. The publicist insisted that this is a HUGE show and who am I to argue with a publicist? Ticket prices certainly reflect the importance of the band. Seven Mary Three, which last appeared here in August of 1996 at the Brewery, will open.

Tix and info: 361-3100

• Coyote's string of free shows includes one featuring Molly Hatchett on Monday, December 7. Dallas Moore will open. the show is a WSFR event.

Tix and info: 589-3866

• Gather 'round, Tewligan vets. Mike Watt, of Firehose and Minute Men fame and original punker who played Derby Eve shows in '91 and '92, will be at the Mercury Paw on December 11. Gaunt, Warner Bros. recording artist, will open.

Tix and info: 361-3100

• How about an all-ages indie rock show at a church? No kidding, this one is the "Planet Why" show, put together by Victoria and Steven Moon and held at Deer Park Baptist Church, 1733 Bardstown Rd. The acts are Out, the Enkindels and Elliott, all Initial Records bands. The show is on December 4 at 7:30 p.m. and is a "Toys for Tots" event, so bring a new toy for admission. Note "new" toy, not used.

Tix and info: 485-1174

• If you can't wait for the next return of Mojo Nixon to the Phoenix Hill Tavern, scoot on down to Lynagh's in Lexington. He traveling with the Toadliquors band on what is billed as a "Horny Holidays" tour. The show is on December 9.
