

Example 1

Would you like to see what's inside that tent? You should visit the circus. To your left, trainers coax lions to soar through flaming hoops. On your right, trumpeting majestically, elephants parade and stand on their hind legs. In the center ring, bears perform. For example, they may walk on a tightrope or attempt to form a pyramid. Let's go! You will find out what's under the big top.

Example 2

The sights and sounds of under the big top are calling. You should visit the circus. In calm, steady voices, trainers coax lions to soar through flaming hoops. Trumpeting majestically, elephants parade and stand on their hind legs. With snorts and growls, bears perform. For example, they may walk on a tightrope or attempt to form a pyramid. Let's go! The ringmaster is announcing the first act.
