Computer Programmer Job Description

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of computer programmer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for computer programmer

- Write and maintain documentation of NPCR EDITS systems and programs in multiple forms
- Participates in Developers Meetings and contributes to the feature sets for enhancements of Registry Plus products
- Prepares both technical documentation for customer-based IT support staff and training materials for end users of Registry Plus products
- Provides ongoing technical support for customers using key Registry Plus tools (EDITS metafile and associated tools)
- Develops tools and methods to streamline support for customers using the Registry Plus products
- Provides support to NPCR registries in the use of the NPCR EDITS Tools (EditWriter and GenEDITS Plus)
- Assists NPCR registries in the development of registry specific edits and edit sets
- Tests NPCR EDITS Tools software modifications
- Develops, updates, and provides documentation (edit dictionaries,) for metafiles for NPCR as needed
- Generates Online Help for edits as part of standalone RPOH

Qualifications for computer programmer

- Experience using SiteCatalyst preferred
- Must possess valid cybersecurity baseline credentials, including CompTIA A+ce and Configuring Windows 7 Certifications
- Must have 5-7+ years of computer programming experience
- Must have experience solving conventional programming problems
- Must have experience in developing, modifying, and maintaining assigned programs
- Must have experience in designing and implementing modifications to the interrelation of files and records within a program or programs in consultation with senior level personnel