

The red circle is the cut line. After designing, cut along the red circle. For best results, try to cut just within the red circle so that no red is showing on what you cut out.