

New Year's Left and Right

In a town of giggles, where joy never ends, Closest friends. On New Year's Eve, they go the next, the upper

Left and right, they formed a ring, a circle With each joyous step, a hop and a twirl, they excited and

Right foot forward, they counted down, to they'd own. The clock struck twelve, the exploded, a color

Left and right, their eyes widened bright Right then, they made a wish so sweet friends to meet

To the left, they sang a tune, a New Year then, they hugged with delight, wishing

Left foot hopping, they leaped with glee, would be. Right then, they shouted with let's fly a kite

Left and right, a promise they made, to be the left, they slipped with pride, into a Right then, they looked at the sky so high would draw nigh. Left and right, hand in hand a magical

So, in the town of joy and delight, the
A New Year's adventure, full of fun, in

New Year's Left and Right Directions

1. Have all the participants gather in a circle.
2. Decide on an item to pass around the circle. This could be a wrapped gift or any New Year's-themed item.
3. Give the story to one person who is outside the circle to read.
4. This person will be the narrator, will read the story, and guide the direction of passing.
5. Whoever has the object when the story is finished being read is the winner! To add more fun to the game, the winner could receive a prize.

Directions and Story Included