

The image shows a Google Calendar for March 2016. The calendar is displayed in a grid format with days of the week (Sun to Sat) as columns and dates as rows. A task titled "Review blog post" is highlighted on Tuesday, March 8th. A tooltip for this task is open, showing the title, date (Mar 8, 2016), alert time (Alert 1 day before at 9 AM (default)), and a URL (https://app.asana.com/0/...). The calendar grid shows dates from 28th to 9th, with various events and holidays marked.
