1 JOHN 3:16-18
This is how we know love is: Jesus Christ gave up his life for us. If we love one another, we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. If anyone sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity for them, how can the love of God be in that person? Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with action and in truth.

2 CORINTHIANS 5:14-17
For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again. So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!
