Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Business Relationship Manager position at Mexy International, Inc., as advertised on LinkedIn.com. I believe that my skills and experience align perfectly with the requirements of the role.

Currently, I am employed as a Business Relationship Manager at DF Group, Inc., where I have honed my leadership and relationship development skills over the past 3 years. In this role, I have successfully communicated with key clients, implemented new business performance metrics, facilitated cross-departmental collaboration, and contributed to overall business development activities.

Some of my notable achievements include increasing market share by 7% within one year and being awarded Manager of the Year for exceeding all targets.

I hold a Bachelor of Business & Management degree from the University of Glasgow, where I maintained a 4.0 GPA and served as Vice President of the TEDx Club. I possess exceptional communication skills, critical thinking abilities, and a track record of effective leadership and teamwork.

As a native Spanish speaker fluent in English and with basic knowledge of Chinese, I am well-equipped to thrive in an international organization like Mexy International, Inc. I am proficient in using software such as Hubspot, Pipedrive, and SalesLoft, essential for this role.

I have attached my resume for your consideration. Thank you for taking the time to review my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experiences align with the needs of Mexy International, Inc.
