

Ways of saying 'darling' in the UK

Friendly darlings – Sweetie, love, hun, darl

Teenage darlings – Baby, babes, lover, honey, snookums, lamb chop, cutie-pie, sweetiekins

Children – Lamb, pumpkin, pikaninny, sweet pea

Cute Names to Call Your Girlfriend

Daisy

If she is delicate like a flower.

Happiness

If she is the reason of your happiness.

Kitten

If she is adorable like a kitten.

Button

If she is cute as a button.

Pink

If she is girly.

Donut

For someone who is sweet and round.

Wifey

Someone you plan to make your future wife.

Honey

A classic rolls on the tongue.

Cinderella

As she is a princess in your eyes.

Sunshine

If she lights up your day.

Sweet-heart

If she is sweet and sincere.

My All

If she means everything to you.

Cutie-pie

If you find her cute and sweet.

Dream-girl

As she is the girl of your dreams.

Cupcake

If she is sweet and yummy.

Cherry

She completes your life.

Pumpkin

As she is bright and sweet.

Dove

As she is fragile and pure.

Peach

If you consider her cute and delightful.

Cute Names to Call Your Boyfriend

Adorable

Simple, yet effective.

Amore Mio

This means “my love” in Italian.

Angel

The perfect pet name for a sweet and angelic boyfriend.

Babe

A classic name to call a boy.

Bear

The perfect pet name for a big and powerful dude.

Beloved

A sweet and meaningful pet name for a guy who you love.

Boo

An oldie but a goodie.

Boobear

A good variation on “Boo” and as cute as hell.

Candy

Because he’s sweet as candy.

Chief

A perfect pet name for a guy who likes to take charge.

Darling

Straightforward but from the heart.

Hero

A guy who is brave and would do anything for you.

Love

If you love this man, this pet name will tell him so.

My All

This man means so much to you.

My World

A cute name that means so much.

Soul Mate

You and this boy are destined to be together.

Sweetie

A simple pet name, but a classic for a reason.

Zorro

The strong, silent type.