

Declaration of Independence
Print Copywork

We the People of the United States, in insure domestic Tranquillity, provide for the common defence, promote the general and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States.

JULY 4, 1776

[illegible]

The collage features several historical documents. At the top, a portion of the US Constitution is visible, with the words "We the People" and "insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution" clearly legible. Below this, the text "IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776." is prominently displayed. The central and largest document is the Declaration of Independence, with the title "The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America," at the top. The text of the declaration is written in cursive and includes phrases such as "When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bonds which have connected them with another, and to... We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." The bottom right corner of the collage features a small logo with the word "White" in a stylized font, accompanied by a graphic of a flower or leaf.

By Bonnie Rose Hudson

