

Local Wind Diagram

This definition works for me:

Local winds are winds that blow over a small area.

They happen because different materials heat up and cool down at different rates (SPEEDS).

