

Link Roundup Outreach

Hey [insert name]!

I really enjoy your [topic] roundup posts. I just published this piece of content that I think would be perfect for your next roundup. [link to content]

It's a detailed guide of questions web designers should ask new clients in onboarding and why. The article also has a downloadable PDF that readers can refer to.

Let me know what you think! I'd be happy to share your roundup on my social media platforms.

Thanks for the consideration!
