- Warm-Ups - On each of the running days, use the 5-minute walk as your warm-up. Walk at a brisk pace to get your blood pumping.
- Alternating Walking and Running - On the running days, you'll see instructions such as "5 x 5 Min Run/1 Min Walk". This means you should run for 5 minutes, then walk for 1 minute, repeating the whole 6-minute pattern 5 times.
- Cross-Training - Cross-training is any type of workout in a sport that is different from your main focus. For runners, endurance-based sports such as cycling or swimming are great cross-training options.
