

A vibrant graphic celebrating the Holi festival. The background is a mix of white, pink, blue, and orange splatters. A large, intricate pink mandala is centered behind the word 'होली'. Above the word, several colorful teardrop shapes (blue, yellow, teal, red, purple) are scattered. In the top right corner, a string of colorful triangular flags (green, orange, pink, green, orange, pink, green, orange, pink, green, orange, pink) hangs diagonally. In the bottom left, three small brown bowls are filled with green, orange, and purple powders. The word 'होली' is written in a large, white, stylized Devanagari font.
