

Appointment

- President appoints judges for ALL federal court vacancies
- Senate must confirm all nominations by majority vote (Advice and consent)
- Senatorial courtesy – tradition started by G.Washington to seek approval from local senators over locally appointed judges