

Dear Diary,

Silas told me that this book is a thing called a diary and I write what I feel in here. This will help me with my writing and he said when I'm older, I can read through this and see what I was like when I was a kid. I think that is a good idea.

Today was just a normal day and I don't really have anything exciting to write about so this is goodbye for now.

Dear Diary,

It's getting so boring being cooped up in this graveyard all the time. Sometimes I just want to leave but I know I won't last very long. I'm just 9 years old after all! Maybe when I'm older though. Hopefully.
