

Helen: Where are you going, Ingrid?

Ingrid: I am going to the petting zoo with my classmates.

Helen: What is a petting zoo?

Ingrid: A petting zoo is a special zoo. We can pet the animals.

Helen: Really? Can I pet a lion?

Ingrid: No! A lion is a dangerous animal. There are no dangerous animals in a petting zoo.

Helen: What kind of animals are in a petting zoo?

Ingrid: There are baby goats and sheep, and there are ducks, geese, and a pony. And they even have baby aardvarks!

Helen: Wow! That sounds like fun! Can I go with you?

Ingrid: Sorry, Helen. I am going on a field trip to the petting zoo with my classmates. I can't invite you.

- ❖ Why can't Ingrid invite Jenny to the petting zoo?
- ❖ What animals can you pet?
- ❖ What animals are too dangerous to pet?
- ❖ Where else can you go on a field trip?

Make a sentence: There are no _____ in a _____.