

An aerial photograph of a construction site. A winding canal with blue water runs through the center. To the left of the canal is a large, circular, brown excavated area. In the bottom left corner, there are tracks from heavy machinery and a red and white striped traffic cone. The background shows more of the construction site with some greenery in the distance.

10

RULES OF

SUCCESSFUL
LAND DEVELOPMENT
DESIGN