

Choose the appropriate prepositions on, in, at or to.

1. Jose is a brilliant student, especially in English.
2. We are going on a vacation next weekend.
3. Bianca is going to Rome this summer for a vacation.
4. I was born on a Saturday.
5. The train leaves at 5 o'clock, hurry up!
6. It never snows here even in winter time.
7. Shreya has been living in India.
8. Blue jacket sounds good to me.
9. I don't want to go out at night, it is too cold.
10. The wheels on the bus go round and round.

Complete the following exercise with the most appropriate prepositions on, in, at or to.

- 1-2. Alan lives in a flat in Sacramento.
3. Do you go to bed late every night?
- 4-5. Is the cafe open in the afternoons or in the evenings?
6. People sometimes take a nap in the break room.
7. When do you go to the office?
8. I visit my grandmother in her house and we have tea together.
9. We had a nice picnic at the weekend.
10. Most students have lunch at their classrooms.
11. We go to Hawaii every summer.
- 12-13. The classes start at 15:30 in the afternoon.

Prepositions Exercise

Take + Prepositions Exercise

A. Fill in the blanks using the words in the box below, then click the "Check" button to check your answers.

along   around   away   back   into   on   out   over   through   up

1. His heart attack was brought on by too much stress at work.
2. I didn't realize he had gotten divorced. I'm so embarrassed - I wish I hadn't brought up his wife at the party.
3. Your new dress really brings out the color of your eyes.
4. Don't you bring into those dirty shoes my clean house!
5. What exactly did you bring away from the experience. Did you learn anything at all?
6. They brought over a pizza and some beer and we watched an old movie on television.