The image displays several overlapping browser windows:

- Top Left: A Gmail inbox showing various email categories like 'Important', 'Sent Mail', and 'Drafts'. A 'NYC GROUP' card is visible on the left.
- Top Center: A Google search page with the search bar and a notification: '3 conversations have been moved to the list. Last updated Undo'.
- Center: A Trello 'Welcome Board' with three columns: 'Basics', 'Intermediate', and 'Advanced'. Each column contains instructional cards with icons and text. A 'Members' sidebar is also visible on the right.
- Bottom Left: A page titled 'Eat Something' with a list of restaurant recommendations, including 'NYC GROUP' and 'Eat Something'.
- Bottom Center: A map showing a city area with several green location pins.
- Bottom Right: A Google search results page for 'math' with topics like 'Congruent angles', 'Line graph inhibition', and 'Direct and inverse variation'.
