Keeps your data safe and private.

Google Nest uses AES 128-bit encryption and secure connections to protect your data. You can enable two-factor authentication in the Nest app for even more security.