

Study Tools for Rapid Learning

Worried you won't remember the words? You get the word lists, slideshows and flashcards that re-quiz you on words so you never forget them. Worried you won't "understand" native conversations? You get slowed down audio and line-by-line breakdowns so you pick up every word. What about pronunciation? You can practice and compare yourself with natives with voice-recording tools. And that's just a small taste of what you're about to unlock!
