

OTHER WAYS TO SAY:

LIKE

- Admire

I've just been admiring your new car.

- Fancy

Mary didn't fancy the idea of going home in the dark.

- Enjoy

Thanks for a great evening. I really enjoyed it.

- Love

She really loves winter evenings.

- Adore

She adores working with children.

- Prefer

I much prefer jazz to rock music.

- Idolize

Young children often idolize their parents.

- Enjoy

Mary didn't fancy the idea of going home in the dark.

- Love

She really loves winter evenings.

- Adore

She adores working with children.

- Prefer

I much prefer jazz to rock music.

- Idolize

Young children often idolize their parents.

- Cherish

Children need to be cherished.

- Desire

The house had everything you could desire.

