

Independent Reading Response

Name and student number		Date
Link of reading text
Source: author, newspaper, date.

1. Paste your article at the end of this document.
2. Highlight the main ideas
3. Use the comments boxes to identify the information that answers the Wh questions (Who, where, when, what, why)
4. Then write your ideas about the article. Write about 200 words.
5. Share with your teacher and upload to your Learning Portfolio.

Think about these questions: Why did you read this article? What did you learn? What do you think about what happened? How does it relate to other articles you have read on this topic? How does it relate to your life or to your country? Anything else you want to say?
Word count:
Reading strategies:
Which strategies did you use before you read the text? <input type="checkbox"/> Found a quiet place to read.	Which strategies did you use while you were reading the text? <input type="checkbox"/> Concentrated on reading.