

START

a person who is always showing off your perfect day at home your plans for holidays describe your favourite painting talk about your mother's typical day a person who is always losing things

PRESENT SIMPLE PRESENT CONTINUOUS

describe a perfect party your plans for the next week what is happening now in the classroom your perfect evening out the things which are changing all around the world summarise your favourite book your plans for the evening what is happening out of the window your typical Monday a picture in your textbook what your teacher is doing now summarise the scariest story you have ever heard a typical day of the president of your country a story your parents told you when you were a child a perfect holiday abroad a person who is always losing his / her temper your perfect honeymoon the things which are changing in your life your typical weekend

a person who is always making a mess your plans for tomorrow summarise your favourite film your typical dream

FINISH

TALK ABOUT...

a typical day of a teacher a picture or a poster which is in your room a typical story in a soap opera a person who is always doing something disgusting