SUMMARY

Let's make it clear: no lies on your resume. Only true information. You will get the job! At once if you don't show your real worthiness – it will be more difficult to do it while interviewing. A resume is your story that includes your education, career path, personal qualities and position that you are looking for.

Company | 2016 — 2017

Below the company name you should briefly (7-10 words) mention about its field. For example: it's among the top 5 companies in the consumer credit area. It must be exact, measurable, imposing and correspond to the position, for instance:

- During four weeks I brought to the market a new product that helped to earn 800,000 dollars in half of the year (marketing manager).
- I negotiated with the manufacturer and delayed payment to 30 days, having saved on credits 100,000 monthly.
