Acknowledge

First of all I express profound gratitude to almighty Allah for His endless grace to enable me to complete this dissertation. From the deepest core of my heart I would like to express my indebtedness and earnest respect to my honorable teacher, advisor & guide Dr. Ferdousi Islam MBBS, FCPS, MMED(UK), Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology, DMCH, Dhaka, for her intensive guidance, valuable suggestions and worm hearted support in the completion of the study.

I am grateful to patients, nurses, and doctors working in the fistula center who helped me in collecting data and made this study possible.

Thanks to chairman and members of the dissertation committee for approving the subject of the study.
