As soon as working with a word file, you may need to add comments for feedbacents by default will display on the right of the contents with a line linking to the txt. If you move these comment lines from the document, please follow the steps below

> When working with a word document with a word documentyou may add comments for feedbacks. If you want to remove these coment lifr the document, please follow the steps below

When the word document, you may need to enhance comments for feeoack. Thn by default will display on the right of the contents with a line linking to the text. If yu want tnese comment lines from the document, please follow the steps below

When working with a word document, you may need to add comments fr feedbaments by default will display on the right of the contents with a line linking to the txt. If yoimove these comment lines from the document, please follow the steps below

When working with a word document, you may need to add comments fr feedbaments by default will display on the right of the contents with a line linking to the txt. If yoimove these comment lines from the document, please follow the steps below