

What is a Design Concept?

A design concept is the idea behind a design. It's how you plan on solving the design problem in front of you. It's the underlying logic, thinking, and reasoning that leads you to a design solution.

