

An All-White Bench

Twenty-five districts across the US have never had a non-White judge.
Almost half are districts that serve their entire state.

