This question tests your ability to select and explain teachings on a variety of ethical issues.

Don't practice until you get it right. Practice until you can't get it wrong!

The command word here is 'Explain' so you will need to give 2 developed and fully separate responses to the question.

Each are worth 2 marks, then the final mark is awarded depending on the suitability of the teaching that you have used and how effective you have been at quoting it or referring to it and explaining it.

Scriptures or sacred writings could include holy books like the Qur'an, Bible or Tenakh, or other respected religious texts like encyclicals from the Pope or teachings from the Buddha.
