

By the Eternal! this Union must
and shall be preserved:
A Traitor's doom to him who acts against it.

Pardon! Pardon!

Calhoun.

Gen. Jackson.

Those Northern dogs
how they whine!

Jeff:

Gentlemen, I am well pleased with what you ask for, you are men of sense, and to commence with I wish you to call back those fellows, Sherman, Grant and Sheridan also that old Seadog Farragut after that we will see further.

Those fools, now that we are in the last ditch they come and beg for peace.

We should like to have Union and Peace, dear Mr Davis but if such is not your pleasure then please state your terms for a friendly separation.

Amen!

Pendleton.

Little Mac.

1832.

DEMOCRACY.

1864.

Published by L. Prang & Co. 159 Wash^{ton} St. Boston.