

A close-up, high-angle photograph of a Canon printer's control panel. The panel is light-colored with various buttons and a small display. A black rectangular box is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing white and red text. The text reads: 'Canon Printer' in white, 'ERROR CODE' in large red letters, and 'For Older Model' in white. The background shows buttons with Chinese characters like '电源' (Power), '启动' (Start), and '彩色墨水' (Color Ink), and a paper tray labeled 'A4 普通纸' (A4 Standard Paper).
