

Life Calendar (Light Mode Public Copy)

This is a Life Calendar. It will automatically check off each week as you live it. Add the years you expect to live, change the birth date in the Start Date formula, and it will algorithmically do the rest. Table View shows Major Landmark tags, a total yearly completion view, and has a column for linked pages. List View shows each week individually.

Click here for the Dark Mode version: hyperda.sh/lc/dark

Here is a setup guide for your Life Calendar: hyperda.sh/lc/setup

List view ▾

... New ▾

 Type to search...

 2000
 2001
 2002
 2003
 2004
 2005
 2006
 2007
 2008	                                  