

Difference Between Program and Programme & Their Similarities

Difference between Program & Programme

Program

MEANING-

It means to modify, to regulate, set, produce a result, etc.

GRAMMATICAL USES

The program can be both noun and verb.

Programme

MEANING-

It means a plan of action for a specific purpose; list of acts or activities related to an event.

GRAMMATICAL USES

This can only be a noun.

NCERTBOOKS.GURU

Similarities Between Program and Programme

In British English, the word Programme is referred and used in context with computers, while the word program is a preferred spelling.

Similarly, in

American English, the word program is acceptable for everything while both programme and program are preferred in Australian English.