Material facts

"You" (this includes every person or entity to be insured under this insurance) are under a duty to disclose all material facts that could influence QIC Insurance (International) Limited's decision to accept this insurance and, if so, on what terms. You need to disclose both facts known to you AND facts which you could have been reasonably expected to know about. If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact may be material, you should disclose it to ensure that any cover provided is not prejudiced.

Non-disclosure of information

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, QIC may be entitled to void the contract altogether and to decline to pay any claims.

Jurisdiction

Except to the extent otherwise provided in any subsequently issued policy, the content and use of this form and any agreement entered into pursuant to this form or any dealing in relation to or arising from this form are governed by the law of New Zealand and in relation to those matters, the parties submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of New Zealand.
