

EASTER

EASTER ACTIVITY INSTRUCTIONS

OBJECTIVE: Your teacher will have specific instructions for the completion of this activity. Some options include writing to or from the Easter Bunny or writing a story about Easter from the student's point of view. Your class may also be asked to make a display for the activity.

ADAPTATION: This set of templates can be used in a variety of ways. Templates are included for the purpose of writing to or from the Easter Bunny or writing a story about Easter from the student's point of view. Some options include writing a letter to the Easter Bunny or writing a story about Easter from the student's point of view. Some options include writing a letter to the Easter Bunny or writing a story about Easter from the student's point of view.

Some options include writing a letter to the Easter Bunny or writing a story about Easter from the student's point of view.

Write a letter to:

Create a "letter" to be presented to the Easter Bunny. The letter can be presented to the Easter Bunny or to a classmate.

Write a request letter to the Easter Bunny. Write a request letter to the Easter Bunny. Write a request letter to the Easter Bunny.

Write from the perspective of the Easter Bunny.

FOURTH GRADE

