

The Metropolitan Museum of Art AN ADVENT CALENDAR

Open the windows of The Metropolitan Museum of Art, and discover works of art from the Museum's collection in this charming Advent calendar. The twenty-four images feature elements of the Christmas Story, including animals, angels, and the Holy Family, by masters such as Botticelli, Duccio, and Raphael. Also highlighted are Santa Claus, reindeer, toy soldiers, and other favorite icons from vintage greeting cards.

A New York landmark, the Museum's facade was designed by Richard Morris Hunt and was dedicated in 1902. This whimsical illustration depicts the beloved Beaux-Arts building and its vibrant streetscape, complete with endearing symbols of New York, from buses and the ubiquitous taxi to street musicians and schoolchildren.
