

File Edit Format View Help

Sierra Club: Email - The Best Day of the Year in Yosemite
Page 1 of 2

Member Center | Log-in | Register | Tell a Friend

View in Browser | Send to a Friend | Join or Give
Sent to \(Not You? Sign Up Here\)

Jan. 18, 2011: In This Issue

- These Hills Will Stay Alive
- Drilling and the Gulf
- Recharging the Economy
- The Perfect Day in Yosemite
- Environmental Justice for All
- Good Jobs Green Jobs

Share:

These Hills Will Stay Alive

For more than a decade, local Sierra Club activists and other concerned citizens in Appalachia worked to stop the devastation of mountaintop-removal mining. Last week, they achieved one of their most important victories when the Environmental Protection Agency announced that it will cancel the water-pollution permit for one of the largest mountaintop-removal mines ever proposed in the region.