

Irena Sendler
In the Name of Their Mothers
PBS Documentary

A close-up, medium shot of Irena Sendler, an elderly woman with short, wavy, light-colored hair. She is wearing a dark, high-collared garment. Her expression is serious and reflective as she looks slightly off-camera. The background is softly blurred, showing a room with a desk, some papers, and a framed picture.

I'd go out on my rounds in the morning and see a starving child lying there.
